Here is the latest in Bishop Minerva Carcaño's case:

United Methodist Bishop Minerva Carcaño was exonerated of all charges by a jury of 13 North Central Jurisdiction United Methodist clergy on Sept. 22 in Chicago.

The denomination's first Latina bishop has been on leave since March 9, 2022 while complaints against her were under review.

All four charges, which included 26 specifications, received votes of 13-0. The trial began at 8 a.m. on Sept. 18. The jury started deliberations at 4 p.m. Sept. 21. They made their unanimous verdict at 8:32 p.m. The verdict was read when the trial started again at 8 a.m. Sept. 22.

"I am grateful for the jury for the time and faithfulness they have displayed in their task. Now I am eager to return to the work of ministry in the California-Nevada Conference and The United Methodist Church and the process of healing for all and the ministry of the church," Bishop Carcaño said at the end of the proceedings. The Rev. Scott Campbell was counsel for Bishop Carcaño.

"For me, it was an honor to be trusted by Bishop Carcaño and to be invited to participate in this search for justice," he said. "I was heartened by the decision and at the same time aware of the long road that lies ahead. My prayers are for everyone who has been and who will be involved in this process."

Retired Judge Jon R. Gray, attorney at Shook, Hardy & Bacon L.L.P. in Kansas City, Missouri, served as assistant counsel without voice.

"My involvement in Bishop Carcaño's defense team was a matter of justice and pushing the church to do the right thing. I am grateful for the jury verdict. I empathized with the people involved who saw things differently. I pray for healing for all."

Gray, who was also a part of the trial of Bishop W. Earl Bledsoe, said he saw some inequitable measures applied in that case he saw also applied here.

"The church has always had a racial dilemma and the dilemma remains."

Retired Bishop Alfred W. Gwinn was the presiding officer. At the end of reading the verdicts Gwinn said, "Trials wound as much as they help. This is not the way for the church."

The four charges were "disobedience to the order and discipline of The United Methodist Church," under ¶2702.1(d) of the 2016 Book of Discipline; "relationships and/or behavior that undermines the ministry of another pastor under ¶2702.1(f) of the 2016 Book of Discipline;" "harassment, including, but not limited to racial and/or sexual harassment," under ¶2702.1(j) of the 2016 Book of Discipline; fiscal malfeasance" under Par. 2702.1(l) of the 2016 Book of Discipline."

Gwinn said, “We must repair harm. We are not witnessing to the secular world with this process.”

Carcaño has served in ordained ministry for 47 years. She was elected bishop by delegates in Western Jurisdiction in 2004.

As bishop, she has led three episcopal areas in succession — Desert Southwest, California-Pacific and, since 2016, California-Nevada.

The Western Jurisdiction includes the 12 westernmost U.S. states and the territories of Guam and Saipan.

Bishop Carcaño gives thanks to the outpouring of support and prayers she has received from around the denomination from all parts of the world. Those prayers have helped support her through these past 18 months.

She is also so thankful for the outpouring of support that has come from ecumenical and interfaith colleagues and from leaders she has been privileged to serve with in the areas of community organizing, philanthropy and global migration.

She especially thanks the congregation she was birthed into and that continues to be her home church, El Buen Pastor UMC of Edinburg, Texas. Those prayers and unconditional love have sustained her throughout her life and discipleship.

She also gives thanks for the hospitality of the North Central Jurisdiction and Wespeth.

GOODBYE GERRY

1. We need to take the caps off the plastic bottles
2. We need to bag plastic, aluminum, and glass separately.
3. Glass can not include wine bottles.
4. Everything must have the recycle brand on the bottom (or CA CRV on it).
5. Take it to Nonie and Micah's house until the church opens again. Then we can put them in the plastic bins as we used to do
6. Call Micah at (530) 533-1868 and he will meet you in his driveway when you arrive.

I am so glad not to lose this project that we have been supporting for so many years. How exciting it always was to find out how much money we had collected for the year and then what animal we could buy for a family overseas. Thank you Jeremy and Micah for taking it on.

Alma

If we don't answer when you call just place your recycling next to our garbage bins. Please no milk jugs or wine bottles. Micah and family

CHURCH COUNCIL MINUTES

First United Methodist Church of Oroville
Minutes of Church Council Meeting
August 13, 2023

Minutes taken by Glenda Ott and prepared by Gail Leonard

The meeting was called to order by Lay Leader, Gail Leonard at 11:40am. The opening prayer was given by Pastor Cheng.

Reports:

Pastor Cheng did not have a report but thanked the Lay Servants for covering the first Sunday service for the next year and for the good work they have done so far.

Finance Committee: John Fowler reported that the Church is spending more money than it is bringing in. However, April and July were good months. But the balance in the General Fund, which is from fund raising, is going down.

Please bring any ideas for fund raisers to the Finance or Trustee Committee.

There was a problem at the Parsonage recently, a letter from the City of Oroville prompted the cutting of 5 trees on the property. Tree of Life completed the job for $3000 and the money came from the Parsonage Reserves.

There was a discussion about the new carpet in the Sanctuary. It is costing the Church over $14,000.

The funds came from the Cochran Improvement Foundation.

Jeremy spoke about the Church needing a new sound system. The current one is 15 years old and a new one will cost about $2500-3000. No action was taken.

SPRC: There was a request from a community member to complete Probation ordered community service hours at the Church. This was tabled in order to gather additional information.

An evaluation of the custodian, Xeng Lee, was completed and it has been decided that a time clock will be used to track his hours and that Pastor Cheng and Jim Webster will supervise him.

It was also noted that the Church now has a lawn mower.

Trustee Committee: Jim Webster spoke about the new carpet and that it should be finished early this week. He also informed the Church that the LED lights have been installed in the parking lot and they are working great.

Next, he spoke about needing new lights above the Chancel in the Sanctuary. They would be stage lights that can change color and move where needed. They cost $200 each and there are 12 of them. Pastor Cheng requested we get quotes for remote control stage lights, so no one has to climb a ladder to adjust the lights once they are placed.

Jim asked for volunteers to install the new lights, once they are selected. This would require climbing a tall ladder and completing the hookups.

Hmong Ministry: They had no report.

Outreach Committee: Randy reported the committee is hosting the basket raffle again. And requested that each committee provide a basket for the raffle, along with anyone else that would like to participate. He stated that Tri L Mandarins will be providing another basket this year. This is a great fund raiser for the Church.

CONTINUED

Youth Committee: Michelle spoke about the success of their fund raisers and how they raised enough money to go to the water park; however, they did not have enough drivers, so they have not been able to go yet. Gail mentioned that maybe some Church members could volunteer to drive the youth.

Sunday school Committee: Tracy informed the Church that there is no Sunday school in the summer months, but it will be starting up again in September. And that volunteers are needed to help run the Sunday school classes.

Tracy also spoke about Shoua working with the 5yrs and under class. And that volunteers are welcome with this age group, too.

Yard Care Committee: Alma spoke about how the lawn needs to be managed better including watered on a regular basis. She informed the Church that April from State Preschool has been mowing the lawn. Carol suggested the Church get the sprinklers on a timer, so the lawn can be watered as often as it needs to be. Otherwise, someone would have to volunteer to come to the Church and water the lawn at least every other day.

New Business: Jeremy spoke about the annual Turkey Dinner, and that he and Erin will be over seeing it again this year. It will be on Saturday, November 4th.

Volunteers are needed to cook turkeys, make side dishes, set-up, serve the dinner and clean up. This is a good fundraiser for the Church.

Closing prayer offered by Gail Leonard.

FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH OF OROVILLE
INCOME & EXPENSE REPORT

July 2023

Checking Balance July 1, 2023	$ 19,478.26
Income Deposits during July 2023	14,313.51
Checking Expenses during July 2023	10,166.68
Checking Balance July 31,2023	23,625.09
Liabilities:
Pension 2011	$3,381.70

July 2023 was one of our better months for our church finances but there was a reason. We had five sundays and five Monday deposits in July. We usually have only four Sundays. July 31st was on Monday so money that came in on July 31st was spent in August. That made July look very good but that does not happen very often. We had $4,146.83 more income than expenses. That made me feel real good but it won't happen again real soon. Some of our August income may have come in on July 31st. I don't expect that to happen again for a very long time.

Thank you for your help with our church finances

Thank you
