Friends,

We are receiving reports of fraudulent text messages being sent to people affiliated with CANV. The most current one is falsely attributed to Bishop Carcaño. It is NOT from Bishop Carcaño and you should delete it. If you have already opened it, simply delete. Do not respond.

The text message will read something like:

Hi (Name), Please return my text when you get it, I have a favor to ask.
~Bishop Minerva G. Carcaño.

Grace and Peace

If you respond to the text, you will most likely get a reply asking you to purchase gift cards on her behalf. Please remember that Bishop Carcaño has not, nor will she ever reach out to you with a request to send money, in any form or way directly to her.

Some general reminders about how you can spot these scams over email or text message:

- Before you open take a look at the sender address or phone number. If the sender address seems suspicious, or is different than the email address or phone number the person typically uses, then it probably is a scam.
- Take a look at the subject line. If the subject line seems strange, or irregular, that is also a red flag.
- Take a look at the content of the message. If the message is asking you to purchase gift cards or give money, it is probably a scam.
- If you go so far as to open the email or reply to the text, which we advise against, and the content asks you to reply by email or by phone because your assistance is needed with an unnamed situation, you should assume that it is a scam.

You can always reach out to the individual the text is purported to be from, using other contact information you have for them, and check to see if the text is legitimate.

If you open these kinds of text, DO NOT RESPOND. Simply delete the text message.

If you have any questions, please reach out to Selby Ewing, selbye@calnevumc.org or Hanna Widund, johannaw@calnevumc.org.

Thank you for keeping us aware of these scams!

Dear Valued Customer,

We hope this message finds you well. We would like to express our sincere appreciation for your commitment to Zero Waste and responsible waste management. We have some exciting news to share with you regarding an upcoming change to your recycling services at no cost to you!

Service Enhancement:

As a valued customer with Recology, you are currently subscribed to our cardboard service. Your dedication to reducing waste has not gone unnoticed, and we are pleased to inform you that your cardboard bin has been transformed into a versatile Mixed Recycling bin.

What Does This Mean?

This change will allow you to combine all your recyclable materials into a single bin. Yes, you read that right! You no longer need to separate different recyclables – now they can all go into one bin. This upgrade in service is fantastic news, as it simplifies your recycling efforts and opens up new possibilities for reducing waste.

Comprehensive Information:

To help you navigate this transition smoothly, we have enclosed a pamphlet detailing the list of appropriate materials for the new Mixed Recycling service. This pamphlet will serve as a handy reference guide to ensure you know exactly what can be placed in the bin.

Get in Touch:

We understand that you may have questions or concerns about this service enhancement. Whether you're seeking clarification on the changes or considering adjustments to your current service levels, we encourage you to reach out to our office. Our dedicated team is here to assist you in any way we can.

Your commitment to sustainability is truly commendable, and we're excited to continue supporting your journey toward a greener future. Thank you for being a valued member of our recycling community.

Mobile App for our Church

We now have a mobile app for our local church. There are still items being added to it and suggestions are welcome (there's a spot on the app for suggestions). One thing about this app is you have to close it after use to be able to see any new info on the app. iPhone's you swipe up from the bottom then swipe the app screen towards the top. I believe the other phones are similar in closing apps. You can also access the online church directory from this app.

Just a reminder if you set the alarm off at church to call the number on the paper next to the alarm panel and let Accularm know that you are at church and set the alarm off. When the alarm goes off and no one calls Accularm they call a list of church members to let them know the alarm is going off and lately either Jim Webster or Micah Buis has had to go down to the church to check out the alarm so we aren't charged for the police going out to a non-emergency.

1. We need to take the caps off the plastic bottles
2. We need to bag plastic, aluminum, and glass separately.
3. Glass can include wine bottles.
4. Everything must have the recycle brand on the bottom (or CA CRV on it).
5. You can drop them off at church or at Nonie & Micah's house on the carport.
6. Call Micah at (530) 533-1868 and he will meet you in his driveway when you arrive.

I am so glad not to lose this project that we have been supporting for so many years. How exciting it always was to find out how much money we had collected for the year and then what animal we could buy for a family overseas. Thank you Jeremy and Micah for taking it on.

Alma

If we don't answer when you call just place your recycling next to our garbage bins. Please no milk jugs or wine bottles. Micah and family

Dear Friend:

I'm truly fortunate to witness every day how the giving spirit of groups like yours can change the world. No matter how much circumstances change, one thing remains the same: people continue to show generosity and dedication to the families we serve.

Which is why I want to extend my sincere appreciation for your group's recent contribution of $170.00 to Heifer. Your compassion makes a permanent difference in so many lives. I'm reminded of the quote by Mr. Fred Rogers: "All of us, at some time or other, need help. Whether we're giving or receiving help, each one of us has something valuable to bring to this world. That's one of the things that connects us as neighbors—in our own way, each one of us is a giver and a receiver." And to magnify the joy of your gift, an additional group of generous donors has matched your donation, doubling the impact of your gift!

Each day, we witness the need of families in the poorest corners of the world, who are simply trying to figure out how to get by. Hardworking parents wonder if they'll have enough food to feed their children at the end of the day ... if they can afford school or medication ... if their home can withstand natural disasters.

Thanks to your group of Heifer donors, moms are building businesses and earning steady income to feed their children ... dads are running their own family farms instead of having to find work far away ... you are providing nutritious food, education and hope for the next generation.

I hope you know how much we, and the families who are touched by your generosity, appreciate you all. Our work would not be possible without you by our side.

With appreciation,

Christy Moore
 Senior Vice President of Marketing

*Thank you again for your contribution. No goods or services were provided in exchange for your gift. Heifer International is a 501(c)(2) non-profit organization eligible to receive tax-deductible donations. Our EIN is 25-141,9477.

WHERE DOES YOUR GIFT GO? Your gift is on its way to one of the 19 countries where we work, where a family anxiously awaits, not even fully knowing the transformational change it will bring. Your generosity gives a family the resources, education and opportunity to forge a new future – one filled with hope and possibility.

OUR COMMITMENT TO YOU ...
 We are committed to ensuring your gift takes us one step closer to our shared vision of a world without hunger and poverty.

CHURCH COUNCIL MINUTES

First United Methodist Church of Oroville
Minutes of Church Council Meeting
August 13, 2023

Minutes taken by Glenda Ott and prepared by Gail Leonard

The meeting was called to order by Lay Leader, Gail Leonard at 11:40am. The opening prayer was given by Pastor Cheng.

Reports:

Pastor Cheng did not have a report but thanked the Lay Servants for covering the first Sunday service for the next year and for the good work they have done so far.

Finance Committee: John Fowler reported that the Church is spending more money than it is bringing in. However, April and July were good months. But the balance in the General Fund, which is from fund raising, is going down.

Please bring any ideas for fund raisers to the Finance or Trustee Committee.

There was a problem at the Parsonage recently, a letter from the City of Oroville prompted the cutting of 5 trees on the property. Tree of Life completed the job for $3000 and the money came from the Parsonage Reserves.

There was a discussion about the new carpet in the Sanctuary. It is costing the Church over $14,000.

The funds came from the Cochran Improvement Foundation.

Jeremy spoke about the Church needing a new sound system. The current one is 15 years old and a new one will cost about $2500-3000. No action was taken.

SPRC: There was a request from a community member to complete Probation ordered community service hours at the Church. This was tabled in order to gather additional information.

An evaluation of the custodian, Xeng Lee, was completed and it has been decided that a time clock will be used to track his hours and that Pastor Cheng and Jim Webster will supervise him.

It was also noted that the Church now has a lawn mower.

Trustee Committee: Jim Webster spoke about the new carpet and that it should be finished early this week. He also informed the Church that the LED lights have been installed in the parking lot and they are working great.

Next, he spoke about needing new lights above the Chancel in the Sanctuary. They would be stage lights that can change color and move where needed. They cost $200 each and there are 12 of them. Pastor Cheng requested we get quotes for remote control stage lights, so no one has to climb a ladder to adjust the lights once they are placed.

Jim asked for volunteers to install the new lights, once they are selected. This would require climbing a tall ladder and completing the hookups.

Hmong Ministry: They had no report.

Outreach Committee: Randy reported the committee is hosting the basket raffle again. And requested that each committee provide a basket for the raffle, along with anyone else that would like to participate. He stated that Tri L Mandarins will be providing another basket this year. This is a great fund raiser for the Church.

Youth Committee: Michelle spoke about the success of their fund raisers and how they raised enough money to go to the water park; however, they did not have enough drivers, so they have not been able to go yet. Gail mentioned that maybe some Church members could volunteer to drive the youth.

Sunday school Committee: Tracy informed the Church that there is no Sunday school in the summer months, but it will be starting up again in September. And that volunteers are needed to help run the Sunday school classes.

Tracy also spoke about Shoua working with the 5yrs and under class. And that volunteers are welcome with this age group, too.

Yard Care Committee: Alma spoke about how the lawn needs to be managed better including watered on a regular basis. She informed the Church that April from State Preschool has been mowing the lawn. Carol suggested the Church get the sprinklers on a timer, so the lawn can be watered as often as it needs to be. Otherwise, someone would have to volunteer to come to the Church and water the lawn at least every other day.

New Business: Jeremy spoke about the annual Turkey Dinner, and that he and Erin will be over seeing it again this year. It will be on Saturday, November 4th.

Volunteers are needed to cook turkeys, make side dishes, set-up, serve the dinner and clean up. This is a good fundraiser for the Church.

Closing prayer offered by Gail Leonard.

Unsung Heroes of Methodism: Thomas Webb

<https://www.umnews.org/en/category/church-history>

*We've all heard the names John and Charles Wesley, but there are a lot of other important names in the history of Methodism you may not know. The Unsung Heroes of Methodism series tells the stories of lesser-known figures whose lives and witness still impact The United Methodist Church today, even if their names aren't familiar to us.*

What may be so fascinating about Captain Thomas Webb is how he seemed to appear on the pages of Methodist history out of nowhere. We know very little about his early life. He was born in England in the 1720s, served in the British army, and lost his eye in the Seven Years' War.[1]

Webb was first converted to Methodism in 1765. He was a very charismatic individual and his appearance gave him a commanding presence. He often preached in his uniform and would place his sword on the altar for dramatic effect. But it was Webb's powerful preaching that ultimately kept listeners' attention. Wesley was impressed by Webb and allowed him to become an itinerant preacher in England.[2]

Still serving as an officer in the British Army, he was sent to New York in 1767. Wesley granted him permission to preach freely across the American Colonies. Methodism had been brought to North America some years before by Irish immigrants settling in Maryland and New York, but there was little-to-no regular contact between these groups. When not on duty, Webb spent every free moment traveling and preaching the Gospel. He would travel among the societies freely, assisting their leaders and helping create a sense of unity among them. Webb also is credited with spreading Methodism to Delaware.

New York was already home to one of the most successful Methodist societies in the American Colonies, founded by Barbara Heck and Philip Embury. Webb helped the society fund the building of its first official meeting house that would later become John Street UMC and preached there regularly.[3]

Webb could see the American societies needed more central organization and joined others in petitioning Wesley to send more preachers to North America. Wesley responded by sending a series of new overseers from Britain to administer the societies, including future MEC bishop Francis Asbury.

Webb continued to itinerate in America until the Revolution. Still serving in the British Army, he was arrested by the new patriot government and spent time as a prisoner of war. After being released he left America for good and lived the rest of his days quietly in Bristol.[4] Webb leaves the story of American Methodism as abruptly as he entered it, but he left behind a great legacy. His preaching had brought on many new conversions and his attempts to bring the scattered societies in the American Colonies together paved the way for future leaders like Francis Asbury. This is why we celebrate Captain Thomas Webb as an Unsung Hero of Methodism.

Flowers on the Altar

The flower calendar is located as you enter the church on the bulletin board. If you have a special event or someone you would like to honor or remember by bringing flowers for the altar please sign up on the date and your name. The information regarding who or what you are bringing flowers for can be printed in the bulletin if you let Janet or Jeremy know prior to the Sunday you are bringing flowers. Remember you do not have to purchase flowers. Something from your yard is always nice. It's always lovely to see flowers on the altar so I hope you will consider bringing some for a special occasion.

In January 2024 we spent $2,221.22 more than income that was received. We had enough money in our checking account to pay our bills on time. The main problem is in January our property and liability insurance came due once again. We had to pay a deposit on our new insurance. Then we had to pay our February payment on our insurance policy in the same month. The payment goes to a bank in Illinois so it takes a little while to get there. We finance the balance of our insurance from February until November. From now on we will only have to make one payment a month. That will make things better. Finance will discuss putting some of the money we pay on our insurance into our reserve account in the month we do not have to pay our insurance. We have a new insurance agent this year and everything is different. Some of our bills have increased this year but not a great amount.

Thank you for your help with our church finances

Thank you
